Each of the luxurious apartments offer two twin rooms, two separate bathrooms, kitchen, Lounge and balcony and roof solarium.

Modelled on the world's leading luxury hideaways, the thatched Crocodile Club is the heart of the Resort, with its bars, restaurant, terraces, sun lawns and pools, also offering breakfast, dining and leisure facilities of El Torrente, the elegant lounge of the Golf Clubhouse. The exclusive Private Reserve offers Day Spa, Billiards and Film Screening Room, also the sports facilities of the Sierra Club including tennis, paddle, gymnasium, and beach volley ball.

Desert Springs Indiana Course

The Indiana Course at Desert Springs Inspired by the famous desert courses of Arizona & California, The Indiana course opened in 2001 and is built to full USGA specifications. A spectacular example of man's creativity in harmony with nature; its emerald green fairways are set amongst massive rocky outcrops, arroyos and dry rivers. The contrast of the immaculate fairways and "desert springs" with the arid landscape of cactus, rock and flowering desert, all framed within a panorama of landmark mountain ranges, is stunning at all times of year. Over 600.000 cacti and other desert plants grow progressively more dense and troubling, the further your shot is off the fairway, so the course is both demanding and exhilarating and offers a variety of shot making challenges to test the skill level of every player, from the beginner to the professional.
