The HOTEL GUADALMINA 4* SPA & GOLF RESORT is situated in one of the most exclusive areas of Marbella and surrounded by emerald green golf courses and the sparkling blues of the Mediterranean Sea. The Hotel Guadalmina is one of the most unique and elegant hotels in the South of Spain.

Completely renovated and refurbished in February 2002, this resort now offers 179 luxurious rooms all decorated in typical Andalusia style decor, in addition to two Mediterranean restaurants, a piano bar, a private beach and club, two salt water pools, and ample conference facilities to meet all holiday or business needs.

Guadalmina Golf Course

Guadalmina Golf, established in 1959, today Guadalmina offers 17 different nationalities and more than 2.000 members, and probably the best social life along the Costa del Sol. Guadalmina offers two 18 holes golf courses, the old course designed by Javier Arana is renowned for its difficulty, thus making it more suitable for experienced players, Fairways are narrow and well protected by old trees requiring more straight shots.

The new course runs almost parallel to its southern "brother". It is shorter and hillier than the south course and has more water obstacles. The course requires straight drives down the middle of the fairways as failure to do so may have one ending up in one of the numerous water hazards hidden in the rough.

Over these fifty years Real Club de Golf Guadalmina has hosted very important tournaments like the Spanish Championship in 1965 the qualifying school tournament for the European PGA in 1995 and 1996, or the PGA championship in 1998. In 2008 His Majesty Juan Carlos I King of Spain awarded Guadalmina with the Royal Appointment, fifty years of Golf, in a mature but always young and very friendly Club.
