Offers include accommodation at the exclusive HACIENDA MONTENMEDIO 4* HOTEL including breakfast, staying in twin rooms, with green fees at 2 of the best golf courses in the Montenmedio & La Estancia golf.

The Hacienda Montenmedio is a colonial-style Golf and Country Club surrounded by the golf course and equestrian area. With only 25 individually decorated rooms surrounding a courtyard, this is one of the most peaceful and quite hotels anywhere.

The lounge areas are styled like a gentleman's club. There is a small dining room for breakfast, but main meals are served at the Golf Clubhouse where the swimming pool is also situated. The Dehesa Montenmedio estate is just a few minutes from one of the spectacular 'white villages', Vejer de la Frontera, perched on the hilltop 2-3 kilometres away and well worth a visit.

Montenmedio Golf Course is widely stretched out in a natural surrounding. Whilst playing golf at Dehesa Montenmedio you can be certain there will not be any noise or disturbance as it is surrounded by forests where not a single building affects their fairways and greens. The privileged Dehesa Montenmedio golf course is unique in Andalucia. Nowhere else in this region you will find an excess of quietness and luxury, profusion of wild vegetation and animals, ample of water hazards, superb greens, advanced practice facilities, an impressive Andalusian style clubhouse, all in one spot.

La Estancia Golf course, located within a wholly natural environment, is a 72 Par peppered with protected areas which have been respected in the design of the course and which highlight its beauty, encouraging the player to use different strategies for each hole. The dominant winds, the East and West winds, make for a different game every day. The lakes and streams, as well as forming a significant part of the game, are the natural habitat for the more than 25 species of birds that accompany the player during his/her route around La Estancia. La Estancia Golf is a course which players of all handicaps can enjoy, presenting different challenges for each level of play, and being very convenient for walking.
